

Chainsaw Art at Tuscarora Nation Picnic & Field Days

Saturday July 14, 2018 | Noon to 4pm

Located north of the Tuscarora Indian School, at the corner of Mt. Hope and Walmore Rd., Lewiston, NY

Experience the culture and traditions of the Tuscarora people at the 173rd Annual Tuscarora National Picnic and Field Days. Enjoy food, music, arts, crafts, and dances that have been passed down for generations.

With engines screaming and saw dust streaming, Lewiston Council on the Arts will present a Chainsaw Chix performing artist, who will create a masterpiece right before your eyes!

Free admission, free parking. More information available at www.tuscarorapicnic.org

Chainsaw art will be available to purchase

PRESENTED BY

Lewiston Council
on the Arts

ArtCouncil.org | 716.754.0166

Chainsaw Art
Photo Album