Lewiston Council on the Arts announces a Call for Artists for a juried art and fine craft competition and show in the historic Village of Lewiston, NY. Over 20,000 people will attend this much anticipated outdoor festival, which attracts art lovers from Western New York and Southern Ontario, as well as international visitors from Niagara Falls, 10 minutes away.

Lewiston's signature event features work by more than 175 exceptional artists and fine crafters. The Lewiston Art Festival is the #1 event of its kind and the perfect way to celebrate your summer weekend.

Categories include Painting, Graphic Arts (Drawing, Printmaking, T-Shirts, Computer Generated Art); Mixed Media; Photography; Jewelry; Pottery; Ceramics; Glass; Fiber; Metal; Wood.

Cash Prizes in 7 categories plus Best Booth Display and Best of Show. College Alley features the work of high school and college students to provide them an opportunity to gain exhibiting experience. Center Street becomes pedestrian only for the 2-day festival. Rain or shine. Free parking. No admission charge. Complimentary artist awards breakfast Sunday morning.

Application fee $15; Booth fee $225.
