Iroquois Market at the Gazebo

August 8 & 9, 2020

We invite you to reserve a spot at the Iroquois Market to be held during the 54th Lewiston Art Festival on August 8 & 9, 2020. The Hennepin Park Gazebo, at the corner of 4th & Center Street will be the location for a celebration of contemporary and traditional Native American culture.

Work by more than 175 exceptional artists is featured in this prestigious festival and we invite YOU to be a part of it. The $225.00 fee is dropped and space is limited.

Artists must have direct, hands on involvement in the creation of each piece. Cash and ribbon prizes valued at $6000 are awarded to artists in 7 categories (painting, graphic arts, mixed media, photography, ceramics, jewelry, fiber/metal/wood), plus best booth display and best of show. There is no additional charge to compete for prize money. Buy/sell vendors are prohibited.

Don't miss this opportunity to showcase YOUR artwork to thousands of interested buyers!
