2021 Best of Show: "Lavender Fields & Carcassonne" by Laura Gardner

Lewiston Council on the Arts announces a Call for Artists for their juried art and fine craft competition and show outdoors on Center Street in the historic Village of Lewiston, NY. Over 20,000 people will attend this much anticipated outdoor festival, which attracts art lovers from Western New York and Southern Ontario, as well as international visitors from Niagara Falls, 10 minutes away. The festival is Lewiston's signature event and features work by 175 exceptional artists. Application categories include Painting, Graphic Arts; Mixed Media; Photography; Jewelry; Pottery/Ceramics/Glass; Fiber; Metal; Sculpture; Wood.

Cash Prizes in 7 categories plus Best Booth Display and Best of Show. College Alley features the work of high school and college students to provide them an opportunity to gain exhibiting experience. Center Street becomes pedestrian only for the 2-day festival. Rain or shine. Free parking. No admission charge. Application fee $15; Booth fee $225. Call (716) 754-0166 or download prospectus here.

The Lewiston Art Festival is the #1 event of its kind and the perfect way to celebrate your summer weekend.

The Festival features work by more than 150 exceptional artists, fine crafters and vendors. Meet the artists one-on-one and enjoy more than 20,000 original works of art — including paintings, sculpture, ceramics, jewelry, fiber, glass, wood, mixed media, and photography.

The Lewiston Public Library will offer free arts and crafts at the Modern ArtZone. College Alley features the work of high school and college students. Don't miss this chance to start collecting the work of these emerging artists.

Rain or shine. Free parking. No admission charge.

Iroquois Market @ the Art Festival

The Hennepin Park Gazebo area will once again be transformed into an Iroquois Market during the Lewiston Art Festival.

The event will showcase the work of some of the finest local Native American artisans and crafters. The Iroquois Market will also bring to life the rich culture of our Haudenosaunee friends and neighbors, and will feature traditional and contemporary drumming, music and dance.
